C. B. Woodhead, of the firm of Woodhead and Gay, has just returned from the East. He thinks if we can command proportionately good prices with the orange producers of Florida, our fruit will bring in Chicago from $3 to $5 a box. Whether we can ship and sell at these figures will depend entirely upon the freight rates obtainable.

We have received a sample of the oil refined by Mr. E. A. Edwards for illuminating purposes taken out of the Los Angeles well at Sepe. It is marked at 110 degrees fire test, is clear as water and is said to make a stronger and brighter light than any of the imported illuminating fluids now in use here. We shall try the sample.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

This will introduce Mr. E. A. Edwards, a gentleman with whom I have been acquainted for the last twenty odd years. Mr. Edwards is thorough and practical in every branch of the oil business, having had many years of experience. He constructed the first refinery that successfully refined western Ohio, or commonly called Lima, Ohio, oil. He was also the originator of the construction of the pipe line from Lima, Ohio, to Whiting, where the Standard Oil company now have one of their largest eastern refineries.

Mr. Edwards is a reliable business man, and I cheerfully recommend him to the consideration of anyone needing a gentleman who is thoroughly capable of judging oil territory.

Yours truly,

T. Spellaney.

After a vacation of diversified interests club women will again turn their attention to the affairs of clubdom that figures prominently in the activity of the women of Phoenix. While practically every club has announced its opening date for October much business and routing work will be transacted within the next few weeks. Before the closing dates last spring the committees had carefully outlined the program for the ensuing year, nevertheless there will be get-together meetings of boards, departments and committees before the formal opening of the club season. The Civic League held its inaugural meeting on Wednesday and will continue its sessions at the Chamber of Commerce every Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Business Girls' club has not announced its opening, but it is understood the organization is contemplating a gigantic membership rally before preparing its calendar. The southside clubs, affiliated with the district and state federations have outlined interesting work for the next few months and the outlook everywhere is for a hard working, brilliant and successful season.

Through the efforts of public men and club women, the city is now maintaining a rest room located on the city hall grounds at Second and Jefferson streets. The need of a rest room had been agitated by the clubs for years and that it was a real requirement has been demonstrated by the manner in which the public has taken advantage of it since its opening the latter part of July.

Mrs. E. H. Abbot, one of its sponsors and an active member of the Woman's club, the Musicians' club and the Arizona Congress of Mothers, in the matron and reports that the average number of women and girls who daily pass from a few minutes to a few hours there is thirty-five. It is more than a rest room, for the city authorities have fitted it with every comfort for the weary shopper. It is a small house furnished with every convenience, where the mother can care for her little one. There are small iron bedsteads for the tiny tots and besides the basement bedroom there is a kitchenette with gas plate and ice chest. On the first floor the reading room and booth where parcels may be sent direct from the shops or checked upon arrival from the country, are comfortable.

At its initial meeting for the season on October 5, the Madison Improvement club will celebrate its sixth anniversary. The program will be in charge of the art department, Mrs. Fred Gregg, chairman.

The Adams Parent Teacher association will hold its initial meeting of the year, Friday afternoon, October 6.

While the Orangewood-Ramona club will not open its regular season until October 11, it will give two social meetings during September as has been the forthright custom throughout the summer. The next gathering will be held on Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Rice. The program will be devoted to the poets, featuring William Cullen Bryant.

For the general fund of the club, the Glendale Woman's club will hold a cosmopolitan carnival on the evening of September 29 and 30. Annually the club gives a fête, the proceeds of which is devoted to the building fund and in planning this season's entertainment the committee is outdoing all past events. It is understood that all nations are to be represented at booths containing the most attractive novelties. There will also be a program to be announced.

NEW JAP ENVOY HAS RESIDED HERE

later.

The unwritten law of clubdom has been that no action should be taken on any political measure. Politics and religion have been tabooed. Despite this fact, club women cannot fail to be interested in the candidacy for office of one of their members, Mrs. Eugene Brady O'Neill, a candidate for member of the house of representatives subject to the democratic primaries. Mrs. O'Neill is appealing only to the members of her party and has not taken advantage of her prominence in the clubworld to secure votes. She was corresponding secretary of the district federation of women's clubs last season and is an active member of the Woman's club. She is president of the Civic League, having served as its chairman since its organization at the successful close of the suffrage campaign of which she was in charge for this county. The league at a recent meeting unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"We resolved that, knowing through our personal association with Mrs. Pauline O'Neill, the firm stand she has taken for the right on all public questions, and realizing that she is thoroughly capable and extraordinarily able, we hereby endorse the candidacy of our president, Mrs. O'Neill, for the house of representatives, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, which directors shall hold office for one year, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Board of Directors shall be elected annually at a regular meeting of stockholders, which meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday of June of each year, at the principal place of business of the corporation. Provided, that until the first annual meeting above referred to, E. A. RITTER, H. E. BARBER, and J. C. NORTON, shall constitute the Board of Directors, and a majority of the Board shall have the power to fill vacancies occurring in said Board.

ARTICLE VI.

The officers of this corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and such other officers and agents as the Board of Directors may from time to time appoint. The officers so mentioned shall be elected by the Board of Directors from among their own number and as soon as practicable after their own election, which officers shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. Provided, that until otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors, the officers of the Corporation shall be as follows:

President and General Manager, E. A. RITTER; Vice President, H. E. BARBER; Secretary and Treasurer, J. C. NORTON.

ARTICLE VII.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to make such by-laws and rules for the regulation of the affairs and business of this corporation as they shall see fit, and shall have power to alter, amend and repeal the same at any regular meeting of the Directors.

ARTICLE VIII.

The time for the commencement of this corporation shall be the 3rd day of July, 1916, and it shall continue for twenty-five years from and after that date.

ARTICLE IX.

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by action of the stockholders at any regular meeting or at any special meeting of stockholders called for that purpose.

ARTICLE X.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, contingent or otherwise, to which this corporation may at any time subject itself shall be fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars.

ARTICLE XI.

The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be forever exempt from liability for corporate debts.

ARTICLE XII.

The stock of this corporation shall when issued, be forever fully paid and non-assessable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands this 3rd day of July, A. D. 1916.
